

MBRT ANNUAL MEETING

Luncheon Agenda Issues Facing America

June 9, 2010

11:30 am to 12:00 pm Registration / 12:00 pm to 2:00 Luncheon
Capital Hilton Hotel - 16th & K Streets, N.W., Washington DC, 20036

Speakers will discuss:

Issues on barriers and solutions for increasing procurement opportunities for Small, Veteran/SDVOB, Women, and Minority owned businesses

PANELISTS

Moderator: Daniel Heath, Senior Fellow Georgetown University, former Executive Director IMF and Associate Director, White House Economic Council, Scott Amey, General Counsel, Project on Government Oversight, Stephen Denlinger, President LAMA/Procurement Advisor US Hispanic Chamber, Ana Ma, Chief of Staff, SBA and Staff Member of the President's Task Force on Increasing Procurement Opportunities, Fernando Galaviz, CEO, The Centech Group and Robert Burton, Partner Venable LLP and former Deputy Director Office of Federal Procurement Policy, Executive Office of the President, OMB

3:30 pm – 5:30 pm - WHITE HOUSE BRIEFING **
South Court Auditorium, Old Executive Office Building
White House Entrance at 17th Street and New York Avenue
(Southwest entrance to EOB). Arrive by 3:00 pm

 Due to capacity limitations, this event is first come, first served with respect to registration. The event is hosted, managed, and controlled by the White House and is not directly related to the Summit, MBRT Annual Meeting, Luncheon, Reception or any other events. Only Individuals who have sent their security information will be allowed in the White House Briefing.

6:00 pm – 8:00 pm MBDA* Capitol Hill Reception

Limited Seating
RSVP Required

Contact: lynnmiller@mbrt.net

Minority Business RoundTable, www.mbrt.net, (202)289-8881
A non-profit organization representing CEOs of America's leading minority businesses
1629 K Street, N.W., Suite 300 Washington, D.C. 20006